

what the heck is a social store?

Brandize stores add social context to your band's photos or graphics. Integrated directly into a Facebook Page or website, your fans can personalize products featuring your graphics with their own name, a dedication and a signature (a personalized, autographed iPhone case? that's crazy talk). You can also turn off the personalization resulting in more traditional licensed products. Either way a Brandize store is a great way to promote your band.

what about the customer experience?

Our Technology is simple & seamless. No complicated virtual design tools, just a few clicks and done.

- 1) Pick a product category from the home page
- 2) Select your product type or model
- 3) Pick your favorite image from the library
- 4) Reposition images & other elements if desired
- 5) Preview & place your order!

- AVAILABILITY: Because there is no pre-decorated inventory, merchandise is never out of stock

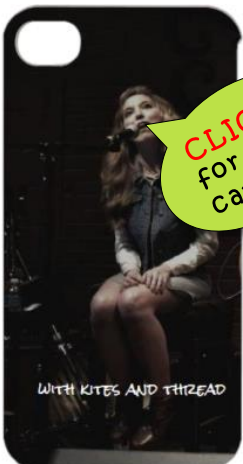

Product options go way beyond concert T's (but if T's float your boat we've got those too) and ship in one-piece increments within 1 business day.
